- Carrie Karl (She/Her), Director of Risk & Emergency Management
- Rebecca Roseberry (She/Her/Hers), Emergency Management Intern
- Shaun Brown, Analyst, Emergency Management

Director Karl gave an overview of what Emergency Management does, since that is not always clear.

Risk and Emergency Management is the department. We work on occupational health, the safety of the employees and workers' compensation, and the general risk posture of the City they serve, and Emergency Management. Director Karl serves as the delegated Emergency Manager and supports the City Manager in a disaster.

The Emergency Management Department is asking for help with planning input on barriers with response, recovery, mitigation, and local resources to make connections with communities.

There was a discussion session between the Risk and Emergency Management team and COBAAC members.
