Nine candidates qualify for Bend City Council ballot

The Bend City Council has four positions that are subject to the Nov. 4, 2008 election. Nine candidates have qualified for the ballot.

The openings in the upcoming election are for Positions 1, 2, 3, and 4.

- Candidates for Position #1 are Peter Gramlich and Tom Greene.
- Candidates for Position #2 are Jodie Barram, Jeff Eager and Dallas Brown.
- Candidates for Position #3 are Linda Johnson and Kathie Eckman.
- Candidates for Position #4 are Jim Clinton and Don Leonard.

The Bend City Council is comprised of seven members who elect a councilor to serve as Mayor. Council Members are elected to four-year terms. Individuals winning a seat on the City Council will begin serving Jan. 7, 2009.
