CDBG Funding Recommendation Process

Provide Support to Necessary Public Services

City staff will offer technical assistance to any potential public services provider to consider organizational capacity and willingness to possibly screen any beneficiary of the services funded through a “verification system approved by the Federal government to prevent any Federal public benefit from being provided to an ineligible alien.”

Homeownership Assistance

- City staff will work with affordable homeownership programs to offer down payment assistance to a handful of households that the organization has screened through a “verification system approved by the Federal government to prevent any Federal public benefit from being provided to an ineligible alien.”
