- b. Review April Agenda: The April agenda was reviewed by all who attended today's meeting.
- c. Staff in audience / online: No staff volunteers to be acknowledged at the meeting.
- d. Chair attendance at recent events: Chair Jones attended the City of Bend Advisory Body Summit. There was representation from each of the Committee, Boards and Commissions. They shared experiences with each of their groups.

Chair Jones attended a Central Oregon NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) event. Highlighting their mission is to provide advocacy, education, support, and public awareness so that all individuals and families can build better lives.

He also participated with Bend LaPine Schools two-day workshop and was impressed with the curriculum and had an EQUITY STANCE Bend-La Pine Schools. Chair Jones thanked Kinsey Martin, HREC ex officio member, for the invitation.

4. Standing Item: HREC Council Liaison Update: Megan Perkins, She/Her, Mayor Pro Tem.

- a. March 18: Council Liaison thanked the people that were able to attend the resolution approval.
- b. April 8: The Electrification Roundtable had a diverse group of people from builders and building trades to energize Bend Chamber of Commerce, with interesting opinions and thoughts on what they should be doing. The presentations from the utilities were facilitating. Pacific Power mentioned that Bend is the second highest growing city just after Redmond. Central Electric Cooperative will have double the members with all the new growth in the Southeast part of the city.

- c. Water Update later in this presentation. April 22, council's work session will review what was discussed at the Electrification Roundtable.
- d. Mayor Pro Tem encouraged the commissioners to listen to the Supplier Diversity Program update that will be held on April 15.

Mayor Pro Tem invited the City of Bend's, Mike Gaffney, Senior Attorney, and Cyrus Mooney, Business Development Manager, to present and preview what they have been working on in reference to city procurements and contracts to make them more accessible to new local contracts.

They have established a relationship with Professional Business Development Group, which is a nonprofit group, headquarters in Portland.

5. Staff Liaison Update: Mellissa Kamanya, She, Her, Hers, Affordable Housing Coordinator, HREC Interim Staff Liaison.

- a. April 28 Fault Lines event – attendance and tabling

b. AIM (Ask, Identify, Measure) Equity Tool: Lindsay Wengloski, She/They, Equity Management Analyst.

- What is the AIM Equity Tool? (Ask, Identify, Measure) Is a way to help integrate equity into everyday decision-making.

It is a set of questions designed to be easy to use, repeatable, and adaptable. A way to help integrate equity into everyday decision making.

- The Focus: Offer an overview of the AIM Equity Tool. A purpose and an intended use. How AIM will be supported and continuously improved to embed equity more consistently into Council-level decisions as well as daily work at the City.
- Your feedback on the process as we continue rolling out.
 - Does this feel like a box to check?
 - Is it helpful to review this information ahead of staff presentations to HREC?
 - Do you feel like this resource is helping shape your conversations with staff that result in recommendations to Council?
- Purpose:
 - Ensure equity is consistently considered in planning, budgeting, and policy development decisions.
 - Identify groups that may be underserved by City programs or services.
 - Work towards building trust with all communities.
 - Surface unintended consequences that could result from a future decision and proactively address them.
 - Identify and weigh the costs and benefits of a given decision.
 - Explain how staff arrive at decisions, minimize harm, and expand access.
- When must we use staff? Initiatives going to council or an advisory body like HREC.
- When is used encouraged? Smaller scale opportunities (e. daily use)
- Timeline: Where we've been
 - 2023-24: Roots: GARE Equity Framework: Pilot: Climate Friendly Areas
 - 2024-25: Adjusted to be nimbler: Relaunch began Summer 2025

- Fall 2025: Paused to reflect and reset: Braided in additional insights and recommendations.
- Late 2025 – Present: Refreshed and relaunching: Pilot: Water Services | Expanded User Guide and updated project form | Trainings and Communities of Practice.
- Future: Continuous Improvement: Opportunities: Future Equity Leader; DEIA Liaisons
- What is next?
 - Meeting with department leadership and management teams
 - trainings and a community of practice
 - documenting and tracking aim use.
- In closing:
 - Your feedback on the process as we continue rolling out:
 - Does this feel like a box to check?
 - Is it helpful to review this information ahead of staff presentations to HREC?
 - Do you feel like this resource is helping shape your conversations with staff that result in recommendations to Council?
 - More Broadly:
 - Does everything that comes before HREC need to apply the AIM Equity Tool?
 - How do you want staff to share how they've applied the AIM Equity Tool to the topics they bring to HREC?

Commissioners talked about various aspects of the AIM Equity Tool and asked about future training.

Analyst Wengloski will be invited back to answer questions and gather feedback from HREC members.

The full AIM Livestream Presentation, Timestamp 54:45

- c. Water Rates 101: Gillian Ockner, Senior Management Analyst and Dana Chenoweth, Utility Business Manager.

Staff will give an overview of the City of Bend’s Water Services Department and its Low-Income Assistance Program and will explain how they piloted the AIM tool to review and assess the program. HREC will review the initial AIM tool considerations and provide recommendations for additional questions.

Slides:

- Water Services
 - Water Services Department Overview
 - Low Income Assistance Program
 - AIM (Ask, Identify, Measure) Tool Pilot Step 1: ASK

7. Public Comment: No public comment.

8. Roundtable: HREC Commissioners.

- Anguiano: April is Fair Housing Month. The Fair Housing Act of 1968 was passed in April. The Education and Outreach team at the Fair Housing Council of Oregon conduct events in April. A Fair Housing event will be held at Tower Theatre on April 28. He will be attending/accepting the Fair Housing month proclamation at tomorrow's event.

- Vernotico: A reminder of the need for a Central Oregon renter protect portal, which do exist in Eugene and Portland.

Vernotico heard there were death threats made to someone in the queer community. Wants to acknowledge and highlight the City's response. Which was exceptional. Mayor Kebler did an incredible swift job of discussing it with the person and asked for the resignation of someone on the Budget Committee and they resigned.

- Currie: Wanted to recognize the struggle it is to sit through conversations about water, knowing her native communities, friends and neighbors do not have access to clean water. Currie appreciates Analyst Ockner and Utility Manage Chenoweth that started this conversation and that water is connected, its life and sacred and defining essential water use. While understanding this is about drinking water within the City of Bend.

9. Adjourned: With no further HREC business the meeting adjourned at 6:30 pm.

Respectfully submitted by,

Lisa Larsen, she, her, Administrative Specialist, Accessibility and Equity Program
